WEEK 12 • HOUSTON TEXANS vs. NEW ORLEANS SAINTS

WEEK 1: Houston 20 vs. Kansas City 27

71,776 • NRG Stadium • Houston, Texas • Sept. 13, 2015

GAME SUMMARY

The Texans fell to the Kansas City Chiefs 27-20 in the season opener at home.

After trailing by as many as 21, the Texans rallied back to within one score late in the game.

Two early turnovers, which included a fumble after a strip sack and an interception, proved costly for Brian Hoyer. The Chiefs capitalized on both, scoring 14 points and taking a 27-9 lead going into the lockerroom at halftime.

Ryan Mallett entered the game midway through fourth quarter, adding a touchdown and two-point conversion on his first series. He finished 8-of-14 for 98 yards, one touchdown, and a 102.7 passer rating.

The Texans were lead on defense by J.J. Watt, who had nine tackles, six tackles for loss, three quarterback hits and two sacks. DeAndre Hopkins caught 9 passes for 98 yards. He scored both Texans touchdowns and the two-point conversion. Nate Washington added six catches for 105 yards.

The Chiefs took an early 14-0 lead on two touchdown passes from Alex Smith to tight end Travis Kelce. The first score came two plays after Hoyer's pass was intercepted by rookie cornerback Marcus Peters, deep in Texans territory.

Hoyer and the Texans offense picked up steam late in the first quarter, moving the ball 80 yards in eight plays. Hoyer's first touchdown as a Texan was to Hopkins on a 4-yard pass in the right corner of the endzone. Randy Bullock failed to convert the extra point attempt. The Texans trailed 14-6 with 0:46 left in the first quarter.

The Chiefs added two field goals from 27 and 48 yards, respectively to extend their lead 20-6.

Hoyer's second turnover came with 5:09 left in the second quarter, as the Chiefs recovered a strip sack at the Houston 7-yard line. One play later, Kansas City found the endzone when Jamaal Charles scored on a short touchdown pass.

Hoyer orchestrated an 11-play, 64-yard scoring drive before the half, but the Texans had to settle for a field goal.

After a scoreless third quarter for both teams, Ryan Mallett entered the game with 6:10 left in the fourth quarter. On his first series, Mallett threw an 8-yard touchdown pass to DeAndre Hopkins after a 7-play, 59-yard drive. He also successfully converted the ensuing two-point play to Hopkins to cut the Chiefs lead to 10.

Bullock added his second field goal of the day after Mallett's second series in the game, a 47-yard kick. The Texans pulled within one score, down just 27-20 with 1:23 left in the game.

The Texans attempted an onside kick, but the Chiefs recovered and then ran out the clock.

WEEK 2 GAME SUMMARY

WEEK 12 • HOUSTON TEXANS vs. NEW ORLEANS SAINTS

WEEK 2: Houston 17 at Carolina 24
73,254 • Bank of America Stadium • Charlotte, N.C. • Sept. 20, 2015

GAME SUMMARY

In their first road game of 2015, the Texans fell to Carolina 24-17 in a matchup that came down to the final seconds of regulation.

Dropped passes and a sluggish first half plagued the Texans offense in QB Ryan Mallett's first start of the season. Mallett finished the game 27-of-58 for 244 yards and added two touchdowns (one passing, one rushing) while throwing one interception.

The Texans offensive line was forced to reshuffle as starting left tackle Duane Brown was inactive. The unit then lost right tackle Jeff Adams to a knee injury during the game.

The defense held the Panthers to 10 points in the first half, but struggled to contain QB Cam Newton, who tossed two touchdowns and rushed for 76 yards and a score. S Rahim Moore nabbed the first takeaway of the season with an interception of Newton.

Houston's defense forced two three-and-outs to start the game. K Randy Bullock's 43-yard field goal in the first quarter put the first points on the board, giving the Texans a 3-0 lead.

Newton's 25-yard pass to Ted Ginn, Jr. gave the Panthers their first lead of the game early in the second quarter. A 28-yard field goal extended their lead on Carolina's following offensive series.

Moore's interception in the red zone kept the Panthers from adding to their lead in the second quarter. Moore returned the pick 17 yards and fumbled, but ILB Justin Tuggle recovered. The Texans took over at their own 22-yard line but were unable to convert the turnover into points.

Head Coach Bill O'Brien's squad trailed 10-3 at halftime.

Mallett and the Texans offense came out firing in the second half. He was 7-of-7 on his first touchdown drive of the day. The 13-play, 80-yard drive was capped by a Mallett-to-Garrett Graham strike at the back of the endzone. The 7-yard score featured Graham's one-handed catch, and tied the contest at 10-all.

Carolina fired back with its own 80-yard drive, punctuated by a two-yard leap into the endzone by Newton. The Panthers regained the lead 17-10.

Mallett's first interception in the fourth quarter, by A.J. Klein, led to Carolina points. One play after the Klein pick, Newton threw a 36-yard touchdown pass to Corey Brown. The Panthers took their biggest lead of the day, 24-10, with 8:53 left in the game.

Mallett bounced back on the next drive, throwing a 48-yard deep pass to WR Nate Washington to move into scoring range. On fourth-and-goal, Mallett's six-yard run brought the Texans within one score. Houston trailed 24-17 after the 7-play, 80-yard drive. The Panthers attempted a 53-yard field goal with 2:48 left in the game. DE Jared Crick blocked the attempt to give Houston possession on its 43-yard line.

The Texans moved the ball down to the Carolina 20-yard line during their final drive of the game but came up short on fourth down.

- Contributed with five tackles (four solo), 1.0 sack, one tackle for loss, two passes defended and two quarterback hits
- Extended his streak of consecutive games started to 66, which ranks third among active NFL defensive ends

WR CHANDLER WORTHY

- Returned his first career kickoff for 27 yards in the second quarter

WEEK 3 GAME SUMMARY

WEEK 12 • HOUSTON TEXANS vs. NEW ORLEANS SAINTS

WEEK 3: Houston 19 vs. Tampa Bay 9

71,718 • NRG Stadium • Houston, Texas • Sept. 27, 2015

GAME SUMMARY

The Houston Texans picked up their first win of 2015 with a 19-9 victory over Tampa Bay.

Both Alfred Blue and DeAndre Hopkins had 100-yard performances as the Texans put up over 400 yards of offense. Ryan Mallett was 24-of-39 for 228 yards, with one touchdown and one interception in his second start of the year.

The Texans aimed for a faster start to Week 3 and accomplished it with an early 7-0 lead. Hopkins led the receivers with eight catches for 101 yards and a score.

Injuries continued to plague the offensive line. Already without starting left tackle Duane Brown, right guard Brandon Brooks left in the second quarter with an ankle injury and did not return. The reshuffled unit still paved the way for 187 yards rushing on the day.

Blue rumbled for 139 yards and a touchdown. It was the second 100-yard rushing performance for Blue in his career.

The Texans defense added one takeaway with an interception of Jameis Winston and held Tampa Bay to just one third-down conversion on 12 attempts.

Tampa Bay's first score of the day was a 58-yard field goal in the second quarter. Kyle Brindza missed two subsequent field goals from 32 and 33 yards, as well as an extra point attempt.

The Buccaneers got on the scoreboard late in the first half. Following a Mallett interception, Tampa Bay took over at the Houston 26-yard line. Two plays later, Charles Sims scored on a 32-yard catch-and-run from Winston. Tampa Bay missed the ensuing extra point as they took a 9-7 lead with 3:51 remaining in the first half.

Late in the second quarter, Bullock missed a 43-yard field goal when his kick hit the right upright. The Texans trailed 9-7 at halftime.

Winston threw his first interception of the day just four plays into the third quarter. Quintin Demps picked off the pass, intended for Mike Evans, to set up the Texans scoring drive. Bullock added a 39-yard field goal as Houston regained a 10-9 lead with 12:37 left in the third quarter.

Mallett led the Texans on a fourth-quarter scoring drive that began with a 30-yard completion to Hopkins. Blue scored his first touchdown of the season on a 20-yard run to cap off a five-play, 80-yard drive. Bullock's extra point attempt was wide right, and Houston led 16-9 with 9:14 left in the game.

Later, the Texans took up 6:52 of the fourth quarter with a 14-play, 76-yard scoring drive. Bullock added a 19-yard field goal as Houston won 19-9.

The Texans improve to 1-2 on the season and will travel to Atlanta in Week 4.

WEEK 4 GAME SUMMARY

WEEK 12 • HOUSTON TEXANS vs. NEW ORLEANS SAINTS

WEEK 4: Houston 21 at Atlanta 48

69,904 • Georgia Dome • Atlanta, Ga. • Oct. 4, 2015

GAME SUMMARY

The Texans fell, 48-21, to the Atlanta Falcons after trailing by as many as 42 points at the Georgia Dome. Despite RB Arian Foster's return to the starting lineup, the Texans offense struggled mightily until later in the third quarter, when QB Brian Hoyer entered the game. Houston scored 21 straight points in the fourth quarter when Hoyer led the team on three consecutive scoring drives.

QB Ryan Mallett completed 12-of-27 for 150 yards and one interception before his exit. Hoyer was 17-of-30 for 232 yards and threw touchdown passes to TE C.J. Fiedorowicz and WR Cecil Shorts III. WR DeAndre Hopkins led the receivers with nine catches for 157 yards.

DEs J.J. Watt and Jared Crick each had a sack on Falcons QB Matt Ryan. The Texans defense also had three passes defensed, courtesy of OLB Jadeveon Clowney and a pair from Watt.

Three first-half turnovers resulted in three Atlanta touchdowns. The Falcons scored 28 unanswered points before halftime while the Texans got within scoring range just once, but K Nick Novak missed the 53-yard field goal.

Houston's defense couldn't contain Falcons RB Devonta Freeman, who found the endzone three times. Ryan was 19-of-27 for 256 yards and one touchdown. Ryan left the game early in the fourth quarter after Atlanta pull out to a 35-point lead. QB Sean Renfree finished the remainder of the game under center for the Falcons.

Mallett's first pass of the game was a 15-yard completion to Foster but three plays later, a batted ball resulted in an interception. The Falcons took an early 7-0 lead in the first quarter when Freeman scored on a 16-yard touchdown run.

Freeman's second touchdown of the day, on a 23-yard run, came early in the second quarter, giving Atlanta a 14-0 lead with 14:39 left in the second quarter.

Minutes later, a Foster fumble resulted in a defensive touchdown and Ryan added his first touchdown pass of the day on a pass to WR Leonard Hankerson. Houston quickly fell into a 28-0 hole by halftime.

The Texans didn't fare much better in the third quarter. Atlanta added two more offensive touchdowns in the third quarter and Mallett exited the game soon after.

Hoyer, who entered the game with 2:56 left in the third quarter, threw a 5-yard touchdown pass to Fiedorowicz on his first series to put Houston on the scoreboard. Hoyer's deep 42-yard pass to Shorts, had Houston at the goal line on the following drive. RB Chris Polk added the second touchdown of the day, and his first as a Texan, on the touchdown run that capped off a 10-play, 75-yard drive. Texans chipped away at the Falcons' lead, down 42-14 with 9:09 left in the game.

Hoyer connected with Shorts for his second touchdown pass of the day with 3:01 left in the game. With just 0:01 remaining, the Texans were in the red zone looking to score again, but Atlanta forced a fumble on Shorts and scored on an 84-yard return.

With the loss, the Texans fall to 1-3 and will next face the Indianapolis Colts on Thursday night.

WEEK 5 GAME SUMMARY

WEEK 12 • HOUSTON TEXANS vs. NEW ORLEANS SAINTS

WEEK 5: Houston 20 vs. Indianapolis 27

71,732 • NRG Stadium • Houston, Texas • Oct. 8, 2015

GAME SUMMARY

In a game that featured both teams playing their backup quarterbacks for a majority of the contests, the Texans fell, 27-20, to Indianapolis. Matt Hasselbeck started for Andrew Luck while Brian Hoyer entered the game for Ryan Mallett in the second quarter.

In the Texans first AFC South contest of the season, rookie receiver Jaalen Strong snared a pair of touchdowns on his first two career NFL catches.

The Texans put up 444 yards of total offense but also committed 13 penalties for 125 yards. Six of the Colts' 22 first downs came as a result of Houston penalties.

Mallett started the Thursday night matchup, but Hoyer finished the game. Hoyer entered when Mallett was shaken up on a hit that resulted in a roughing penalty on the Colts.

Hoyer was 24-of-31 for 312 yards, two touchdowns, one interception, and a passer rating of 116.6. RB Arian Foster rushed for 41 yards on 19 carries. WR DeAndre Hopkins had his third-straight 100-yard game, catching 11 passes for 169 yards.

Mallett was 7-of-10 for 50 yards and one interception. On the Texans opening drive, Mallett moved the offense 61 yards in 14 plays, but his pass to Foster was intercepted in the red zone. Indianapolis capitalized, scoring first on a 48-yard field goal by K Adam Vinatieri.

WR Andre Johnson's return to NRG Stadium was punctuated by two touchdown catches as a Colt. He caught his first one in the first quarter, a four-yard pass from Hasselbeck, to extend the Colts' lead to 10.

Hoyer entered the game 6:49 left in the second quarter and promptly led the Texans on two consecutive scoring drives. K Nick Novak kicked his first field goal as a Texan, a 36-yard attempt, to get Houston on the board.

As time expired in the half, Hoyer's 42-yard Hail Mary pass was caught by Strong. It was his first career NFL catch and it capped off a 9-play, 95-yard scoring drive. The Texans headed into the locker room down just 13-10.

But on the Colts' first possession after the break, RB Frank Gore ran three yards for a score as the Colts took a 20-10 lead.

Both Strong and Johnson added their second touchdown catches of the night in the second half. The Houston rookie caught an 11-yard pass all alone in the left corner of the end zone in the third quarter to end a 10-play, 90-yard drive. Johnson, meanwhile, scored early in the fourth quarter on a two-yard touchdown pass.

Hoyer threw his first interception on his final pass of the night. It occurred at the two-minute warning on third-and-2.

The Texans fell to 1-4 on the season. Houston will head to Florida for their next two games against Jacksonville and Miami in Weeks 6 and 7.

WEEK 6 GAME SUMMARY

WEEK 12 • HOUSTON TEXANS vs. NEW ORLEANS SAINTS

WEEK 6: Houston 31 at Jacksonville 20
 58,085 • EverBank Field • Jacksonville, Fla. • Oct. 18, 2015

GAME SUMMARY

The Texans scored 21 unanswered points in the fourth quarter to revive their spirits and season en route to 31-20 win over Jacksonville. Houston's defense had three interceptions on the day.

WR DeAndre Hopkins had his fourth-consecutive game with over 100 yards receiving and caught two touchdown passes from QB Brian Hoyer. Hopkins finished the game with 10 catches for 148 yards. WR Cecil Shorts III returned to Jacksonville for the first time as a Texan and added 63 yards on four receptions.

Hoyer, in his second start of 2015, was 24-of-36 for 293 yards, throwing three touchdowns. He also amassed a 119.3 passer rating. RB Arian Foster had 112 yards from scrimmage (53 rushing, 59 receiving) and one touchdown.

Second-year S Andre Hal picked up his first two career interceptions, one leading to a Texans score. He first picked off QB Blake Bortles at the goal line, ending a Jaguars scoring drive with 0:17 left in the first half. His second was a returned for a touchdown in the fourth quarter to extend the Texans' lead to 17 points.

Foster scored his first touchdown of the season on a 14-yard catch and run from Hoyer late in the first quarter. The 99-yard scoring drive tied a Texans franchise record (2010 against Baltimore).

The Jaguars tied the game with a touchdown drive of their own on their next possession. Blake Bortles found WR Allen Robinson on a two-yard touchdown pass.

K Nick Novak added a 41-yard field goal with 6:38 left in the second quarter. It gave the Texans 10-7 lead that lasted until nearly the end of the third quarter. Jacksonville took their first lead of the day with just five seconds left in the third quarter, after Bortles connected with TE Julius Thomas on a 29-yard touchdown catch. The Jaguars, who took possession at mid-field after a failed fourth down attempt by the Texans, moved the ball 52 yards in four plays and led 14-10.

The fourth quarter was all Houston as Hopkins found the endzone twice and eclipsed 100 yards receiving. Hal's 31-yard interception return for a touchdown gave the Texans a 31-14 lead. CB A.J. Bouye intercepted Bortles for the third time of the day with 1:09 left in the game.

The Texans improve to 2-4 on the season and will travel to Miami in Week 7 to face the Dolphins.

WEEK 7 GAME SUMMARY

WEEK 12 • HOUSTON TEXANS vs. NEW ORLEANS SAINTS

WEEK 7: Houston 26 at Miami 44
 65,251 • Sun Life Stadium • Miami Gardens, Fla. • Oct. 25, 2015

GAME SUMMARY

The Texans fell 44-26 to the Miami Dolphins after trailing by as many as 41 points.

Despite scoring four touchdowns and holding the Dolphins to just a field goal in the second half, it wasn't enough to keep the Texans' undefeated streak against Miami intact.

Arian Foster finished the game with 59 yards rushing, 66 yards receiving, a pair of touchdowns both through the air and on the ground. He left the game in the fourth quarter with an achilles injury and did not return.

Brian Hoyer completed 23-of-49 passes for 273 yards, throwing for three touchdowns and one interception. Nate Washington, who returned to the lineup after being inactive for Weeks 5 and 6 with a hamstring injury, led the receivers with nine catches for 127 yards receiving and two touchdowns.

The Dolphins scored six unanswered touchdowns against Houston. Ryan Tannehill threw three touchdown passes, two to Jarvis Landry, in the first quarter alone.

The Texans didn't fare much better in the second quarter. Dolphins running back Lamar Miller added a pair of a touchdowns and the Miami defense converted its first turnover into points. On Houston's first offensive series of the second quarter, Hoyer's pass to C.J. Fiedorowicz bounced out of his hands and into the hands of safety Reshad Jones, who returned it 23 yards for score.

After halftime, the Texans picked up their first takeaway of the game. Defensive tackle Brandon Dunn forced a fumble on Dolphins running back Damien Williams. Johnathan Joseph recovered and the Texans took over at the Miami 31-yard line. Four plays later, Hoyer connected with Foster in the endzone on a seven-yard touchdown pass. Nick Novak missed the extra point attempt, but Houston was on the scoreboard 41-6 with 8:28 left in the third quarter.

Foster rushed for the team's second touchdown of the day after an eight-play, 82-yard scoring drive. The two-yard run was his first rushing score of the 2015 season. Houston chipped away at the deficit, down 41-13 with 1:45 left in the third quarter.

Miami's lone score was a 53-yard field goal in the fourth quarter while Nate Washington added two more touchdowns for Houston, on a 27-yard pass and a 5-yarder.

Jadeveon Clowney recorded the first sack of his career in the second quarter, while J.J. Watt sacked Tannehill twice.

The Texans fall to 2-5 on the season and will host the Tennessee Titans in Week 8.

WEEK 8 GAME SUMMARY

WEEK 12 • HOUSTON TEXANS vs. NEW ORLEANS SAINTS

WEEK 8: Houston 20 vs. Tennessee 6

71,630 • NRG Stadium • Houston, Texas • Nov. 1, 2015

GAME SUMMARY

It was a busy day for the Texans defense, who forced three turnovers and sacked Zach Mettenberger seven times in the 20-6 win over Tennessee.

Houston held the Titans to just two field goals on the day. Kicker Ryan Succop kicked a 35-yarder on Tennessee's first offensive series. The Titans wouldn't score again until the third quarter, when he added a 44-yard field goal.

J.J. Watt had 2.5 sacks, including one that led to a fumble. Whitney Mercilus had a career-high 3.5 sacks. The Texans tied a franchise single-game record with 7 sacks, something they hadn't done since Nov. 27, 2011 against Jacksonville. Kevin Johnson picked up the first interception of his NFL career in the fourth quarter.

Brian Hoyer was 23-of-35 for 235 yards, two touchdowns, and had a passer rating of 103.9. He became the first quarterback in team history to throw two or more touchdowns in five consecutive games. DeAndre Hopkins had eight catches for 94 yards and a touchdown.

Hopkins scored in the second quarter on a 21-yard catch to give the Texans an early 7-3 lead with 14:04 left in the second quarter. On the ensuing kickoff, safety Kurtis Drummond forced a fumble, recovered by Eddie Pleasant. Houston regained possession and added a 38-yard field goal to gain a 10-3 lead heading into halftime.

Nate Washington scored against his former team on a 42-yard touchdown catch in the third quarter. Hoyer led the team on a six-play, 80-yard drive that took just 2:16 off the clock.

Watt's strip sack on Mettenberger resulted in fumble recovery by Jared Crick. Four plays later, Nick Novak's 24-yard field goal gave the Texans a 20-6 lead with 12:37 left in the game.

Jadeveon Clowney started but left in the first half with a back injury. Left tackle Duane Brown did not play in the second half due to a concussion. Derek Newton took over for Brown while Chris Clark filled in at right tackle.

With the win, the Texans improve to 3-5 on the season heading into their Week 9 bye. Houston will return in primetime action in Week 10 when the head to Cincinnati to face the Bengals on Monday Night Football.

- Tied a single-game career-high with nine quarterback hits (vs. Buffalo, 9/28/14)
- Finished the game with five tackles (three solo), nine quarterback hits, 2.5 sacks, one tackle for loss and one forced fumble
- Through eight games in 2015, has more tackles (40), sacks (8.5), quarterback hits (25) and tackles for loss (15) than he did through as many games in 2014, when he was named Associated Press Defensive Player of the Year
- Has recorded 14.5 career sacks in nine games against Tennessee, which is his highest total against any team. He has notched 2.0-or-more sacks in three straight games against the Titans and in six overall in the series
- Picked up his first sack of the game when he took down Mettenberger for an 8-yard loss on the final play of the third quarter
- Recorded his first strip-sack of the season when he brought down Mettenberger for a 4-yard loss in the fourth quarter and DE Jared Crick recovered the fumble on the Titans' 10-yard line
- Split a 9-yard sack of Mettenberger in the fourth quarter with OLB Whitney Mercilus, bringing his game total to 2.5 and career total to 65.5
- Extended his streak of consecutive games played to 72, which ranks third among active NFL defensive ends

WEEK 10 GAME SUMMARY

WEEK 12 • HOUSTON TEXANS vs. NEW ORLEANS SAINTS

WEEK 10: Houston 10 at Cincinnati 6

61,381 • Paul Brown Stadium • Cincinnati, Ohio • Nov. 16, 2015

GAME SUMMARY

The Texans handed Cincinnati its first loss of the season, defeating the Bengals 10-6 in a primetime game on the road.

It was a Monday Night Football matchup that almost seemed too scripted to be true but had a storybook ending. There was deja vu everywhere.

QB T.J. Yates entered the game late in the third quarter and led the team on a touchdown drive in the same endzone he connected with Kevin Walter in 2011.

CB Johnathan Joseph picked off Andy Dalton, just like he did in his previous three meetings against his former team.

The Texans defense held the top-scoring Bengals offense to just two field goals through two quarters and scoreless in the second half. Dalton, ranked second in the league in passer rating (111.0) going into Monday night's game, finished 22-of-38 for 197 yards and one interception.

The Bengals were ahead of Houston 6-3 at halftime but the second half was dominated by the Texans defense. Romeo Crennel's unit added two takeaways, including one to seal the win.

With 10:09 left in the third quarter, Joseph intercepted Dalton's pass, intended for Marvin Jones. Joseph juggled and made a miraculous catch. The Texans offense regained possession at the Houston 29-yard line.

QB Brian Hoyer exited the game after the ensuing offensive series and headed to the locker room to be evaluated for a concussion. Hoyer was 12-of-22 for 123 yards and one interception, which was on a Hail Mary pass to end the first half.

Enter Yates.

Yates promptly led the Texans on a nine-play, 79-yard drive that ended in a 22-yard touchdown pass to WR DeAndre Hopkins. The catch, which will likely be seen on a loop on ESPN in the coming days, gave Houston its first lead of the game. Hopkins led the receivers with five catches for 57 yards and that touchdown.

The Bengals drove down the field with less than one minute remaining, but S Quintin Demps forced a fumble on a catch by A.J. Green. Demps also recovered the fumble and Houston took over at the 22-yard line. The Texans ended the game in victory formation. Houston improves to 4-5 on the season and now have a two-game home stretch against the Jets and the Saints.

WEEK 11 GAME SUMMARY

WEEK 12 • HOUSTON TEXANS vs. NEW ORLEANS SAINTS

WEEK 11: Houston 24 vs. New York Jets 17

71,718 • NRG Stadium • Houston, TX • Nov. 22, 2015

GAME SUMMARY

The Texans had a short week, but looked as fresh as ever as they picked up a 24-17 win over the New York Jets. With direct snaps, Wildcat formations and creative play-calling, Bill O'Brien's game plan helped boost Houston to their third-straight win of the 2015 season.

Houston's offense was effective putting up 367 net yards. T.J. Yates, in his first start under O'Brien, was 16-of-34 for 229 yards and two touchdowns.

DeAndre Hopkins led all receivers with 118 yards receiving and two touchdowns. Cecil Shorts III, who lined up under center for several direct snaps in the game, also threw a touchdown pass in the win.

The Texans defense forced two key turnovers late in the game, with interceptions by Eddie Pleasant and Andre Hal, while limiting the Jets to just a field goal in the first half. J.J. Watt led the defense with eight tackles, five for a loss, five quarterback hits, and two sacks on former teammate Ryan Fitzpatrick.

After a scoreless first quarter, the Texans took an early 3-0 lead with a 20-yard field goal by Nick Novak. The Jets soon tied the score taking advantage of a Houston turnover. Yates fumbled early in the second quarter, leading to 40-yard field goal by former Texan Randy Bullock.

The Texans offense gained momentum soon after following a 61-yard touchdown pass to Hopkins with 3:04 left in the second quarter, giving Houston a 10-3 lead heading into halftime.

The Jets ended the Texans defensive streak with 11:23 left in the third quarter. Fitzpatrick connected with Brandon Marshall on a 21-yard touchdown pass. A long defensive pass interference call on Houston earlier on the drive helped move the ball 44 yards down the field. The Texans and the Jets were tied 10-10.

Houston pulled away with two back-to-back touchdowns in the third quarter. Shorts put his passing skills on display as he threw a 21-yard touchdown pass to Alfred Blue. Shorts contributed 56 yards of offense on the scoring drive that gave the Texans a 17-10 lead with 7:51 left in the third quarter.

Hopkins caught his second touchdown of the day on the very next offensive series. His 20-yard reception capped off a six-play, 63-yard drive to give Houston its biggest lead of the day, up 24-10 with 3:24 left in the third quarter.

The Jets fired back, driving 73 yards down the field, scoring on a six-yard touchdown scramble by Fitzpatrick to cut Houston's lead to just seven.

Fitzpatrick and the Jets attempted to score again but two late picks thwarted their comeback. With 2:53 left in the game, Fitzpatrick's pass, intended for Devin Smith, was intercepted by Pleasant. On the very next drive, Hal picked off Fitzpatrick with 1:52 left in the game. Houston regained possession in the red zone and finished off the game in victory formation.

With the win, the Texans improve to 5-5 on the season and will host New Orleans next Sunday.
